

PRESS RELEASE July 14, 2009

LIQUID MILLIONAIRE* - NEW BOOK PREDICTING STOCK MARKET BOOM PROVING A SMASH HIT ON AMAZON

Liquid Millionaire (£21.97, AuthorHouse), a book that claims to show the reader how to make millions from an up and coming stock market boom, could be about to break a record on Amazon.co.uk.

Liquid Millionaire has already achieved thirty-six 5 star reviews on the site, author Stephen Sutherland excitedly says, "I seriously feel blessed. Liquid Millionaire has only been available on Amazon since the end of March this year, so to get so many rave reviews is amazing!"

Considering that Benjamin Graham's classic "The Intelligent Investor" has so far had thirteen five star reviews and Felix Denis's bestselling "How to Get Rich" has thirty, it seems that Liquid Millionaire is well on its way to becoming a bestseller.

But what is it about Sutherland's book that is prompting such a positive readership response?

John Clark from Southampton is one of many who has taken the advice from the book and used it to his advantage, as he excitedly reveals:

"22 weeks ago I invested following Stephen's lead and so far that investment is up 49%. That is quite astounding considering that the stock market over that same period has hardly budged."

Paul Faghy from Stafford echoed the more cynical voice of many investors when he revealed that he always minimises any risk factor that eats into his time or money and Liquid Millionaire was no exception. "But when big hitters such as Brian Tracy, Brad Sugars, Bob Bly and Greg Secker have happily provided their stamp of approval, I felt like I'd be missing out if I DIDN'T read it," he confides.
